NATIONAL YOUTH LICENSE
June 1-3 & 9-10, 2012
Raleigh, NC

North Carolina Youth Soccer Association, along with US Youth Soccer, is excited to announce that the National Youth License will be offered this summer in Raleigh.

The National Youth License is designed to provide club directors of coaching, youth coaches, and soccer administrators with the knowledge to successfully structure soccer environments for children ages 4-12.

The following will be explored: The role of the facilitator and the role of the coach; the physical, mental and emotional needs and capabilities of players from 4-12; lessons from developmental psychology; and the art of teaching. Candidates are videotaped for analysis during live training sessions and those who wish to serve as state and local Youth Module Instructors are certified within this course. It is also a great opportunity for an "A" Licensed coaches to receive 8 CEU's upon successful completion of the course.
